Keith Baltimore Guest Bedroom

Inspired by afternoons perusing the Hamptons' antiques shops, Keith Baltimore describes his space as "a peaceful guest room with a collected look, filled with favorite accessories and furnishings—a snapshot reminiscent of the 1950s." In celebration of that mid-century palette, orange and lime green prevail. Inspired by a 1950s chair, the overscaled headboard with linear slats draws the eye. "There's a uniquely personal look in the room, where individual showpieces play off each other," says Baltimore. ➤

Keith Baltimore, Guest Bedroom

Inspired by leisurely afternoons perusing Hampton's antique shops, Keith Baltimore describes his showhouse space as a "peaceful guest room with a collected, comfortable look—a snapshot reminiscent of the 1950s." The orange and lime-green palette, striped chair, and overscaled headboard with linear slats all come together to achieve the retro look.

The blonde-wash floor lamp's unique structure sparks conversation, while the settee with window views provides the perfect place to get lost in a new book.
